Corvane Employee Handbook 2026

1. Working Hours

Corvane's standard working week is 38 hours. Core collaboration hours are 10:00 to 15:00 in each employee's local time zone, and meetings should not be scheduled outside core hours without the attendee's agreement.

Overtime for non-exempt employees must be approved in advance by a manager and is paid at 1.5 times the base hourly rate.

2. Annual Leave

Full-time employees receive 25 days of paid annual leave per calendar year, accrued monthly. Employees with five or more years of service receive 28 days.

Up to 5 unused days may be carried over into the next year; carried-over days expire on 31 March. Leave requests of more than 10 consecutive working days must be submitted at least 30 days in advance.

3. Sick Leave

Employees receive 12 days of paid sick leave per year. A medical certificate is required for absences longer than 3 consecutive days.

4. Parental Leave

The primary caregiver receives 20 weeks of fully paid parental leave. The secondary caregiver receives 6 weeks of fully paid leave, which must be taken within 12 months of the birth or adoption.

5. Remote Work

Employees may work remotely up to 3 days per week with manager approval. Fully remote arrangements require approval from the department head and HR.

Working from another country is allowed for up to 30 days per calendar year and must be registered with HR at least 2 weeks before travel. Corvane provides a one-time home office stipend of 600 USD for new hires.

6. Public Holidays

Each office observes 11 public holidays per year according to its local calendar. In addition, the whole company closes for a winter shutdown between 27 and 31 December.

7. Code of Conduct

Gifts from vendors or customers worth more than 75 USD must be declared to the Compliance team within 5 working days. Concerns can be raised anonymously through the EthicsLine portal, which is operated by an independent third party.

8. Learning Budget

Every employee has an annual learning budget of 1,500 USD for courses, conferences and certifications. Unused learning budget does not roll over.
